Present your achievements at CSR Marketplace

Companies and organizations that engage in socially responsible practices are invited to take part in the 4th edition of the CSR Marketplace organized by the Responsible Business Forum on March 20th in the Copernicus Science Centre in Warsaw. Deadline for applications is February 19th.

Every company, institution, non-governmental organization or social enterprise that has experience in social responsibility activities undertaken towards employees, consumers, society or natural environment, may take part in the CSR Marketplace. Applications of socially responsible activities that will be verified positively, will be presented at the CSR Marketplace, which is an opportunity to demonstrate CSR practices in a unique manner. All practices qualified for the Marketplace will later be placed at www.responsiblebusiness.pl website.

This year, the CSR Marketplace will be organized responsibly towards society and environment, by introducing Sustainable Event Standard BS 8901. It will be the first Marketplace in Poland organized in accordance to BS 8901 norm.

During the Marketplace following events will take place:

- launch of the “Responsible Business in Poland 2011. Good Practices” Report
- results of the contest for journalists writing about CSR
- special guest appearance

To the Marketplace we have invited representatives of companies, managers, journalists, consumers, students, NGOs and everyone interested in CSR and sustainable development.
