

10th edition of the „Responsible Business in Poland. Good Practices” Report

Responsible Business Forum is accepting good practices to the 10th edition of the “Responsible Business in Poland. Good Practices” Report, which is an annual publication summarizing companies’ involvement in execution of responsible business principles and is an overview of other initiatives in this area, is the most recognizable publication in Poland in the domain of CSR practice.

In the 2011 edition of the Report, the most valuable feature of good practices will be innovative approach to Corporate Social Responsibility. The Forum is following European CSR trends and has changed the areas in the Report into those used in the ISO 26000 norm:

- Organizational governance
- Human Rights
- Labour practices
- The environment
- Fair operating practices
- Consumer issues
- Community involvement and development

Forum’s Committee will choose the best and the most interesting activities in the domain of CSR from those sent by the companies. Chosen practices will be published in the ninth edition of the Report. Publication is free of charge.

We encourage companies that have undertaken corporate social responsibility initiatives to submit their good practices to the 2011 Report. More information and a submission form can be found at www.raport2011.odpowiedzialnybiznes.pl. Submissions are accepted until January 9th, 2011.

Responsible Business Forum is the oldest and the biggest nongovernmental organization in Poland to provide in-depth focus on the concept of corporate social responsibility. More information available at www.odpowiedzialnybiznes.pl.
