

Iwona Kuraszko - PhD in Political Science, is an Associate Professor at Business Ethics Centre, Kozminski Universtiy and Warsaw University – Department of Journalism and Political Science. Author of publications and reports on Corporate Responsibility and social communication, author of several articles in business press. She is involved in different research projects: 'Best Corporate Responsibility Performers in Central and Eastern Europe' for European Academy of Business in Society', 'Corporate Responsibility in Poland' for Ethical Corporation Institute, 'Responsible Lending Standards in Poland', 'Social Economy' for UNDP Global Compact. She was working as Research and Development Manager at Responsible Business Forum (2006-2009). A member of a national team of experts for Corporate Responsibility standards for energy industry in Poland (2009, in co-operation with the Energy Regulatory Office in Poland).