

30th INTERNATIONAL FESTIVAL OF THEATRES
FOR CHILDREN AND YOUTH KORCZAK TODAY
FOCUS: BELGIUM
WARSAW | 16-24 OCTOBER 2026

ABOUT THE FESTIVAL

The International Festival of Theatres for Children and Youth KORCZAK TODAY, organized by the Polish ASSITEJ Centre, is one of the oldest and most important theatre festivals for young audiences in Poland. The festival presents diverse forms of theatre and performing arts from Poland and abroad, creating a space for meeting, dialogue and the exchange of artistic experiences. Inspired by the ideas of Janusz Korczak, it strengthens the voice of young audiences and builds a shared space for children, young people and adults.

FOCUS: BELGIUM

The Focus Belgium programme, held under the patronage of the Embassy of Belgium in Poland, includes performances from Belgium and Poland and the development of international artistic cooperation. The programme will invite artists from Flanders and Wallonia, representing diverse trends in contemporary theatre for young audiences.

FOR PARTNERS

- brand visibility in Warsaw
- association with the patronage of the Embassy of Belgium
- access to an international audience
- opportunity to build business relationships
- support for cultural and educational activities

PARTNERSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Partnership levels are agreed individually, indicatively:

Partner - from PLN 30,000

Event Partner - from PLN 15,000

Supporting Partner - from PLN 5,000

We are open to tailoring the partnership form to your communication strategy and CSR activities.

CONTACT

Miłosz Konieczny

mobile +48 787 669 727

e-mail: miłosz.konieczny@korczak-festival.pl

<https://korczak-festival.pl/>