With its roots in Belgium, the company cherishes its heritage, as evidenced by the annual meetings of all VGD branches - a testament to strong international ties. Additionally, secondments, involving the exchange of employees between our Polish and Belgian offices, further strengthen these bonds.

For many years, VGD has consistently proven its reliability in Poland by delivering high-quality services. The company's success lies in the dedicated people who work in it, and are united by common values, purpose, mission.

Values

of our company

Diversity

Our team is a diversity of perspectives, skills and experiences, which leads to more creative problem-solving and better decision-making. At VGD, we don't look at your nationality or what your native language is - we pursue our goals together, achieving the highest results.

Community Engagement

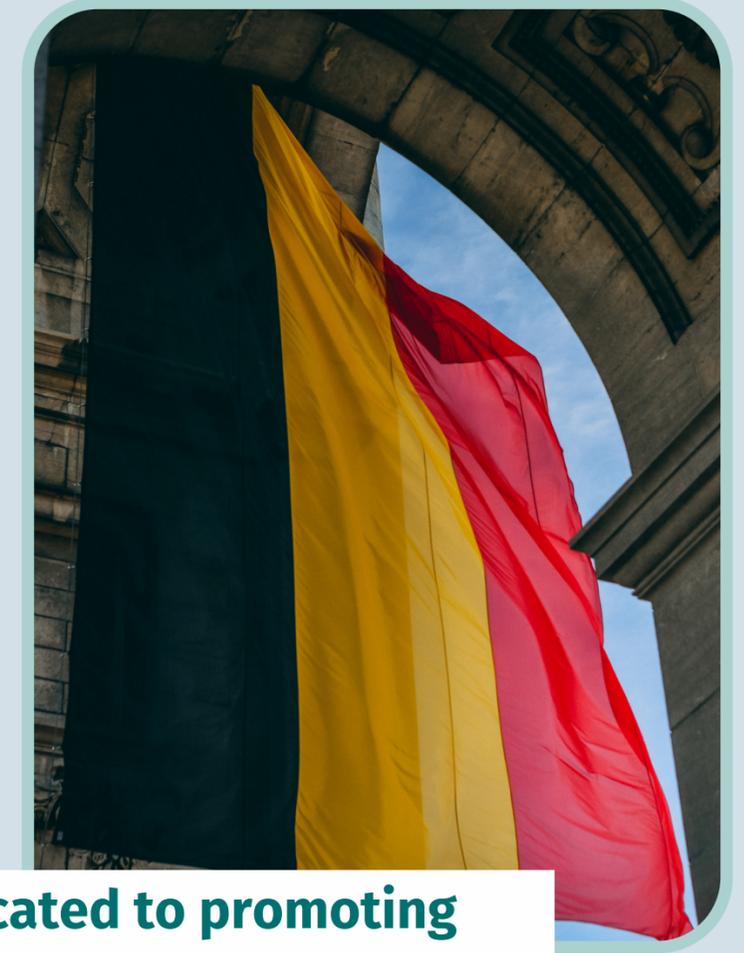

We are committed to giving back to the communities in which we operate, making a positive difference through corporate social responsibility initiatives. That's why our team actively participates in cultural events.

Responsibility

We take responsibility for our actions and their impact on our community and the environment. Sustainability is a priority.

Mission & Goal

Our mission is to simplify your business journey by managing your accounting, tax and HR need, offering comprehensive support from A to Z. You don't have to worry about when to pay taxes or file declarations - our highly qualified staff will take care of that for you.

As a company dedicated to promoting Polish-Belgian relations, we see it as our goal to acquaint our employees with Belgium. We accomplish this through cultural immersion, learning about customs and traditions, and exploring the country's sights and attractions.

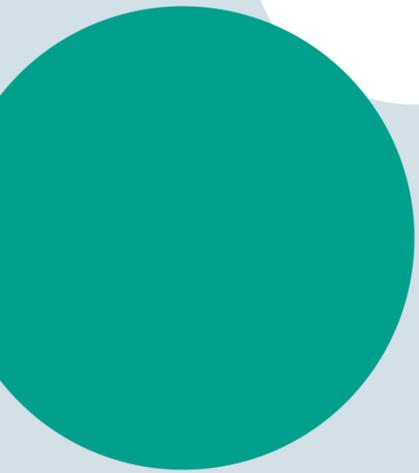

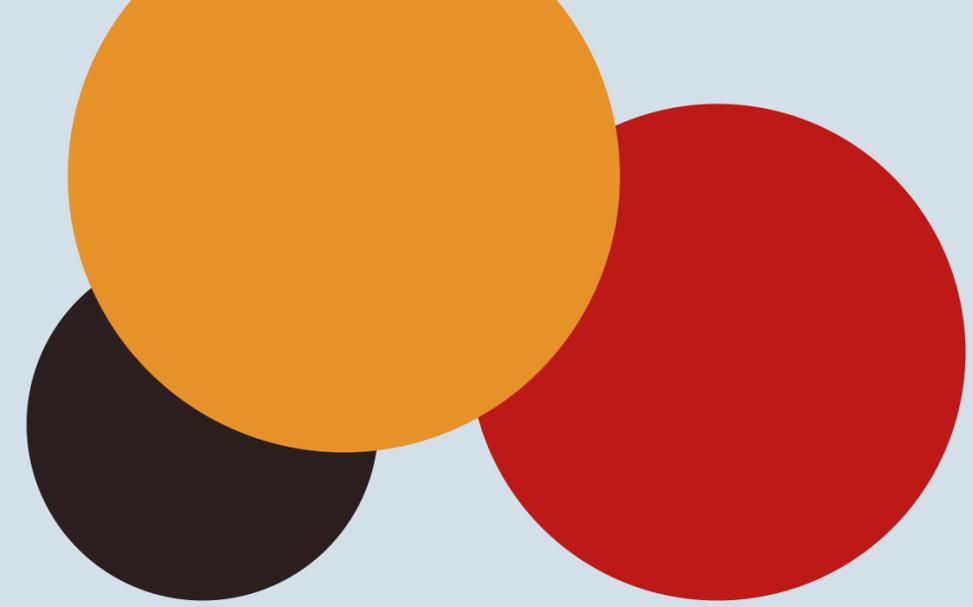

Networking activities

We actively participate in various networking events, industry conferences, and trade missions, fostering collaboration between Belgian and Polish enterprises. Through these initiatives, we establish valuable connections and partnerships, significantly contributing to the growth of the Belgian-Polish business community. This also plays a significant role in establishing new business relationships, making it one of the factors contributing to our success.

Cooperation

Our enduring collaboration with Belgian partners and companies reflects our dedication to strong international relationships. We've built lasting connections and successfully worked on numerous projects over the years. This partnership, fueled by shared values and a commitment to excellence, underlines our belief in limitless cooperation.

Culture

While running our business, we recognize the profound influence of culture on our progress. We enthusiastically participate in various events and consider ourselves fortunate to be part of the Belgian community. We take immense pleasure in immersing ourselves in their culture, whether it's through exploring their architecture and delving into their rich history.

Internal events

At VGD we share the Belgian roots and heritage with our employees through Belgian-themed events -cooking lessons, dressing up as Belgian symbols, knowledge quiz or beer testing.

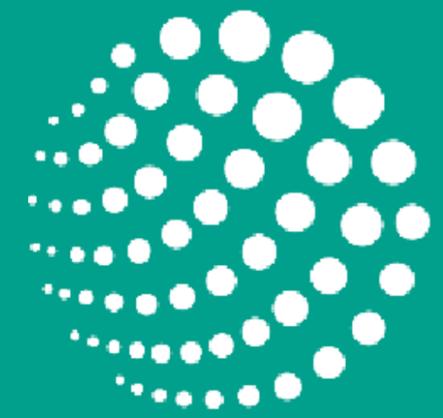

Cultural heritage & cuisine

If you believe that experiencing another country requires physically being there, you're mistaken. We often delve into Belgium's culture by cooking traditional Belgian cuisine, relishing delicious fries, and even tasting Belgian beer. We cherish the Belgian cuisine, therefore we always seize the opportunity to enjoy it.
